

CBR202207: Allergy and Immunology

Guidance and Considerations

Caution

As you perform your internal compliance reviews, keep the following in mind:

Allergy and immunology services are vulnerable to improper payments, particularly as the result of insufficient documentation and coding errors.

Review

Review encounter documentation and choose your code carefully, according to the service provided to the patient and the services documented for the encounter. Remember, if it was not documented, it was not done!

Implement: Allergy and Immunology

Help reduce the possibility of improper payments by taking the following action:

- Review documentation and code selection on a recurring schedule to ensure accuracy and compliance.
